Approximately forty three (43) Seaburg Phonographs described as to location, model and serial number on the attached sheet.

BOOK 56678 PAGE 382

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the said Goods and Chattels, unto the Mortgagee, FOREVER. And the Mortgagor does hereby covenant to and with the Mortgagee that the Mortgagor owns and is lawfully possessed of the said Goods and Chattels, and the same are free from all incumbrances, and the Mortgagor will warrant and defend the same to the Mortgagee against the lawful claims and demands of all persons, and will keep the said Goods and Chattels insured against loss by fire for the full insurable value thereof, in such companies as the holder of the note hereinafter mentioned, may direct, and make the loss, if any, payable to, and deposit the policies with the holder of said note as further security for the indebtedness hereinafter mentioned.

PROVIDED, NEVERTHELESS, That, if the Mortgagor, shall well and truly pay unto the Mortgagee an Installment Note in the amount of $30,000.00 dated November 10, 1958, payable at the rate of $1,000.00 monthly, beginning December 15, 1958, with a like amount on the 15th day of each and every month thereafter until the note is fully paid, said payment to include interest at the rate of 5% per annum, and with interest at the rate of 7% per annum after maturity until paid.

then this mortgage to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

AND, PROVIDED, ALSO, That it shall be lawful for the Mortgagor to retain possession of the said Goods and Chattels, and at his own expense, to keep and use the same, until default shall be made in the payment of the said sum of money above specified, either in principal or interest, at the time or times, and in the manner hereinbefore stated. AND the said Mortgagor hereby covenants and agrees that in case default shall be made in the payment of the indebtedness aforesaid, or any part thereof, or the interest thereon, on the day or days respectively on which the same shall become due and payable, or if the Mortgagee shall feel insecure or unsafe, or shall fear diminution, removal or waste of said property, or if the Mortgagor shall sell or assign, or attempt to sell or assign, the said Goods and Chattels, or any interest therein, or shall fail or neglect to keep the said Goods and Chattels insured and to deposit the policies, as aforesaid, or if any Writ, or any Distress Warrant, shall be levied on said Goods and Chattels, or any part thereof, then, and in any or either of the aforesaid cases, all of said indebtedness both principal and interest, shall, at the option of the Mortgagee, without notice of said option to any one, become at once due and payable, and the Mortgagee, shall thereupon have the right to take immediate possession of said property, and for that purpose may pursue the same wherever it may be found, and may enter any of the premises of the Mortgagor with or without force or process of law, wherever the said Goods and Chattels may be, or is supposed to be, and search for the same, and, if found, take immediate possession of and remove and sell, and dispose of the said property, or any part thereof, at public auction, to the highest bidder, after giving five (5) ...days' notice of the time, place and terms of sale, together with a description of the property to be sold and giving such notice as may then be required by law, or at private sale, with or without notice, for cash or on credit, as the Mortgagee may deem best, and the Mortgagee or any person in behalf may purchase at any such sale; and, out of the money arising from such sale, retain all costs and charges for pursuing, searching for, taking, removing, keeping, storing, advertising and selling such Goods and Chattels, and all prior liens thereon, together with the amount due and unpaid upon said indebtedness, rendering the overplus, if any remain, unto the Mortgagor.

This instrument shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the Mortgagor and Mortgagee and their respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

WITNESS, The hand and seal of the said Mortgagor, this 10th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred fifty eight

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the said Goods and Chattels, unto the Mortgagee, FOREVER. And the Mortgagor does hereby covenant to and with the Mortgagee that the Mortgagor owns and is lawfully possessed of the said Goods and Chattels, and the same are free from all incumbrances, and the Mortgagor will warrant and defend the same to the Mortgagee against the lawful claims and demands of all persons, and will keep the said Goods and Chattels insured against loss by fire for the full insurable value thereof, in such companies as the holder of the note hereinafter mentioned, may direct, and make the loss, if any, payable to, and deposit the policies with the holder of said note as further security for the indebtedness hereinafter mentioned.

PROVIDED, NEVERTHELESS, That, if the Mortgagor, shall well and truly pay unto the Mortgagee an Installment Note in the amount of One Hundred Seventy Five Thousand & 00/100($175,000.00) Dollars, dated November 10, 1958, payable at the rate of $7500.00 monthly, beginning December 15, 1958, with a like amount on the 15th day of each and every month thereafter until the note is fully paid, said payment to include interest at the rate of 5% per annum, and with interest at the rate of 7% per annum after maturity until paid.

AND, PROVIDED, ALSO, That it shall be lawful for the Mortgagor to retain possession of the said Goods and Chattels, and at his own expense, to keep and use the same, until default shall be made in the payment of the said sum of money above specified, either in principal or interest, at the time or times, and in the manner hereinbefore stated. AND the said Mortgagor hereby covenants and agrees that in case default shall be made in the payment of the indebtedness aforesaid, or any part thereof, or the interest thereon, on the day or days respectively on which the same shall become due and payable, or if the Mortgagee shall feel insecure or unsafe, or shall fear diminution, removal or waste of said property, or if the Mortgagor shall sell or assign, or attempt to sell or assign, the said Goods and Chattels, or any interest therein, or shall fail or neglect to keep the said Goods and Chattels insured and to deposit the policies, as aforesaid, or if any Writ, or any Distress Warrant, shall be levied on said Goods and Chattels, or any part thereof, then, and in any or either of the aforesaid cases, all of said indebtedness both principal and interest, shall, at the option of the Mortgagee, without notice of said option to any one, become at once due and payable, and the Mortgagee, shall thereupon have the right to take immediate possession of said property, and for that purpose may pursue the same wherever it may be found, and may enter any of the premises of the Mortgagor with or without force or process of law, wherever the said Goods and Chattels may be, or be supposed to be, and search for the same, and, if found, take immediate possession of and remove and sell, and dispose of the said property, or any part thereof, at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, after five (5) days' notice of the time, place and terms of sale, together with a description of the property to be sold, after giving such notice as may then be required by law, or at private sale, with or without notice, for cash or on credit, as the Mortgagee may elect, and the Mortgagee or any one or more of Mortgagees if there be more than one, may purchase at any such sale; and, out of the money arising from such sale, retain all costs and charges for purchasing, searching for, taking, removing, keeping, storing, advertising, and selling such Goods and Chattels, and all prior liens thereon, together with the amount due and unpaid upon said indebtedness, rendering the overplus, if any remain, unto the Mortgagor.
